

A Flock Of Seagulls, Burnin' Up

you cut me to the wire you shook me to the bone my object of desire don't leave my heart alone with one look in your eyes I saw the raging fire I'm burnin' up I'm burnin' up with such desire took one step in the dark across forbidden lines into the danger zone you took my mind but you make me feel like I'm on fire you make me feel like I'm alive love knocked me at the door pinned me up against the wall you said you play with fire you're gonna fall
I took one look in your eyes across the danger line now I'm burnin' up
love's blind
