

A.J. Croce, Too Soon

Here we go again tonight
We both know it ain't right
Maybe we just fell in love too soon
You like to dance, I like to sing
You want romance, you think it's everything
Maybe we just fell in love too soon
Was it just infatuation?
Did we get caught in the rush?
One little miscalculation
We both expected too much
There's what you want and what you get
There's satisfaction and there's regret
Maybe we just fell in love too soon
Here we are in this great big room
You want the stars, I want the moon
Maybe we just fell in love too soon
