

A Lifelike Story, Dawn Of Disaster

Why cant I stop
Its coming out this pain in me
Im full of doubt
I cant get away
Its an endless fight as it gets worse I lose my might
Im giving up as this fight goes on
My memories are almost gone
As I drift away, losing time
Im a memory in my own mind
I let my life slip out of view
As everything came crashing through
I need a break to numb the pain
As its gets worse Ill stay the same
Im giving up as this fight goes on
My memories are almost gone
As I drift away, losing time
Im a memory in my own mind
In my own mind
In my own mind
Im giving up as this fight goes on
My memories are almost gone
As I drift away, losing time
Im a memory in my own mind
Im giving up as this fight goes on
My memories are almost gone
As I drift away, losing time
Im a memory in my own mind
Im giving up as this fight goes on
My memories are almost gone
As I drift away, losing time
Im a memory in my own mind
