

A Love Ends Suicide, Of Day Dream And Fantasy

This brings me down
This angry field of soldiers
That march in pairs
My heart still beats faster
Let's synchronize each movement
With every chance we have
Stand towards your enemy
Knowing your chances
Think twice with your fist closed tight
Angry eyes wonder
Through rough paths of a hollow souls
That brings me down
Slow emotions rise
Expanding what you've won
Hoping for the best
Let yourself win your own battle
If I'm the only one left
Standing in the rain
But I'm not left alone
And I could not be forced
It takes an army
To disarm me in a storm
Charge your feelings at the world
With everything you've got

Charge your feelings
At the world
Don't kill till we stop
Lay your helmets down with pride
Kneel to the wounded
They cry whispers of joy
And we laugh to stay alive
And I won't hesitate tonight
Fight back and
Don't let your guard down
And god will save us all to fight
Imagine life without any flaws
Say your prayers
To say goodnight
I'll be right back today
This time we will let go
Let's go on
Our hearts will bleed no longer
White lights keep us going
We won't stop fist from falling
Mending what once was ours
