

A.M.Drive, Don't Fear

you were only twenty three i told you you could be a king you followed me for days and days and days tomorrow i'll send you on your way you told me you were afraid that better ways and better days could be arranged just let it flee like herds of swine run to the sea your mind set free from your worry
So don't fear tomorrow brings another day for tears let laughter fill your smile and show your love cause with it you can almost touch the sky without it you can't survive
you say there may be doubts of who I am but stick to the promises of love i give you'll see the time's at hand a dying leaf falls from a tree when wind it stirs just know in you heart and seek with your mind the kingdom
will be yours
