

A Passing Fancy, Island

A Passing Fancy

Island

Everyday I tell myself I don't need nobody else,

I can live all alone with the friends that I have, I got plenty to do and believe me I'm glad that I don't

Then I go back to my room

And the hallway full of gloom

I'm an Island alone but as I turn the key, there's the funniest feeling she's waiting for me-but it's never yet been true.

-----Break-----

I'm an Island in the sea,

And there's no one else but me

I withdrawl in my mind cause it's safer inside, and I don't get involved and I still got my pride

And don't need no one else.

(Repeat 2nd Verse)
