

A Rocket To The Moon, Not A Second To Waste

I'm checking your pulse
I'm giving you air
But your body disagrees
And no it don't care at all
I'm wasting my time
Now your eyes roll awake
You're looking at me
You say Darling what happened
Did I fall asleep?
And you carry me home?
Cause I know I wasn't here
I'm closing your blinds
I'm shutting your eyes
And now IIIII
I'm afraid I have to gooooo
Whoaaaaa
I'd sing you a song
But I'm feeling quite off
In my heart
It's occupied
And now's not the time
Let's try this again
And this time don't laugh
Cause I'm working on my sentences
I'm working on my play on words
I'll get it this time
If I am a clock
Then you are the time
I'm patiently waiting
When you're out of line
And I'll be the question
If you'll be the answer
I'm closing your blinds
I'm shutting your eyes
And now IIIII
I'm afraid I have to gooooo
Whoaaaaa
I'd sing you a song
But I'm feeling quite off
In my heart
It's occupied
And now's not the time
If I am a clock
Than your are the time
I'm patiently waiting
When you're out of line
I'm counting the times
That you've lied to my face
My hands were full
Not a second to waste
If I am a clock
Than your are the time
I'm counting the times
That you've lied to my face
My hands were full
I'm shutting your eyes
And now IIIII
I'm afraid I have to gooooo
Whoaaaaa
I'd sing you a song

But i'm feeling quite off
In my heart
It's occupied
The time.
