I'll always remember
When you were lost in the rain
I knew that moment, my whole life had changed

You told me to save you
From all the pain in your heart
I knew that moment, we will never part

I can give you everything you need
If you only say you'll stay with me

All my love, is what i wanna give you
Everyday, everyday i love you
I'll be there, to lift you just a little higher
Fill your spirit with desire, all my love
Is what i wanna give you
Everyday, everyday i love you
I
