

Aardvarks, Late Onus

Talk
scream to my dreaming but trembling mind Break
slumbering thoughts that I suddenly find Waken
invisible memories breaking the seal Caught
inbetween feelings that noone can heal

Drive in me dive in me
deep in my brain all these malevolent forces arise in me

I'm thinking back to find the truth the cause is burried in my mind I'm digging for it in my youth I'm hoping that I'll never find

Pain
fanning the flames of the selfhate in me
Help searching for details that I cannot see Yearning
knawing and languishing greed for release Kept constantly held by this glowing disease

I'm thinking back to find the truth...
