

Aaron Carter, Blame It On Me

I should've known it all along
You'd be the one to do me wrong
Back to doin' what I want
Now I'm finally havin' fun

Baby, don't mean whatever
I'm just so glad it's over
You know, when they play the radio
You gon' hate it
I'm better off alone
There ain't no drama no more
You know, when they play the radio
You gon' hate it
Baby, don't mean whatever
I'm just so glad it's over
You know, when they play the radio
You gon' hate it
I'm better off alone
There ain't no drama no more
You know, when they play the radio
You gon' hate it

You turn on the radio and hear a song I wrote
It wasn't intentional, but this one is for you
And I hope that you remember me when you're there by yourself
Always put the blame on me when you just did it to yourself, yeah

I should've known it all along
You'd be the one to do me wrong
Back to doin' what I want
Now I'm finally havin' fun

Baby, don't mean whatever
I'm just so glad it's over
You know, when they play the radio
You gon' hate it
I'm better off alone
There ain't no drama no more
You know, when they play the radio
You gon' hate it
Baby, don't mean whatever
I'm just so glad it's over
You know, when they play the radio
You gon' hate it
I'm better off alone
There ain't no drama no more
You know, when they play the radio
You gon' hate it

I should've known it all along
You'd be the one to do me wrong

Baby, don't mean whatever
I'm just so glad it's over
You know, when they play the radio
You gon' hate it
I'm better off alone
You know, when they play the radio
You gon' hate it

You know, when they play the radio
You gon' hate it
I'm better off alone
You know, when they play the radio
You gon' hate it
