

Aaron Jeffrey, Leave A Legacy

I want to give a pure intentions
Speak with words of grace and judge through eyes of mercy
I long to choose with holy wisdom and walk down paths of peace
Taking love to every soul in need
I want to leave a legacy of a servant who believed
That the world could still be changed by just one life
And I want to leave a legacy that years from now they'll see
That I lived only for the cause of Christ
If I could clearly see tomorrow, a humble prayer would be
That every heart would beat with true faith
If I could somehow shape the future
I would hope and pray I touched lives by the way I lived today
I want to leave a legacy of a servant who believed
That the world could still be changed by just one life
I want to leave a legacy that years from now they'll see
That I lived only for the cause of Christ
Oh, to make a difference
By living day to day
As a reflection of God
I want to leave a legacy of a servant who believed
That the world could still be changed by just one life
I want to leave a legacy that years from now they'll see
That I lived only for the cause of Christ
I want to leave a legacy of a servant who believed
That the world could still be changed by just one life
And I want to leave a legacy that years from now they'll see
That I lived only for the cause of Christ
