Love Changes Everything (in album Living Out Loud)

(Aaron Lines/Chris Farren)

Na na na na

Na na na na

Na na na na, na na na

Bobby had everything he thought he'd ever need

A fancy new car and a master's degree

Still he's feeling lost, with no purpose in life

And nothing seems to fill the empty space inside

He sees an ad on late night TV

Says 'Change a kid's life with just a couple hours a week'

Normally he'd keep clicking, just surfing around

But something makes him stop and write that number down

Oh, it's amazing how love changes everything

Na na na na

Na na na na

Na na na na, na na na

Love changes everything

Na na na na

Na na na na

Na na na na, na na na

Well, Sara does her best just to keep the faith

But ever since he left, it's hard to find the strength

She wipes a tear from her eye as she puts the groceries on the shelf

Cause after dinner, baths and homework, there's no time for herself

Two jobs, two kids, too tired to fight

No money, no romance, no end in sight

Just when she thinks she can't go on

She sees a painting on the fridge that says 'I love you Mom'

Oh, it's amazing how love changes everything

Na na na na

Na na na na

Na na na na, na na na

Love changes everything

Na na na na

Na na na na

Na na na na, na na na

Well, I know we've got problems

We've got to figure out, baby

Yeah, I know we haven't been talking or touching much lately

But I know this love's

Got a lot of life left in it

Oh, so let me hold you close, I don't wanna let you go

Baby, let me know, we won't wait another minute

Na na na na

Na na na na

Na na na na, na na na

Love changes everything

Na na na na

Na na na na

Na na na na, na na na

It can change the world, it can change your mind

It can change your tire in the middle of the night

It can change your name, it can change your heart

It can change your tune, it can change your life
