Aaron Neville, I've Done It Again (aka Once Agair

Once again, Here am I wrapped up in a dream, I'm about to lose my mind Over you, I've done it again Once again, I sit alone wondering and worrying all night long Over you, I've done it again I've been in love before I've been hurt before I thought I was through with being a fool But I ended in the same shoes once more Once again, I sit alone wondering and worrying all night long Over you, I've done it again I've done it again You know, I know I've done it again Over you, I've done it again
