

Aaron Pritchett, Unraveling

I wasn't all tied up in knots
It wasn't all part of a plot to never fall in love
Never give my heart
I wasn't running from a past
I guess my wheels were spinning too fast
To slow down enough to ever put it in park
And now I can't believe, I'm unraveling
Like a faded old pair of jeans
Coming apart at the seams
You've untangled all my tangled strings
You got me all figured out
Suddenly, somehow
Like a mystery, I'm unraveling
I love the way you strip me down
I can't believe what you have found
Another part of me I didn't know was there
There's no reservations or hesitations
It's a new sensation
You can touch me, take me anywhere

It's alright with me, I'm unraveling
Like a faded old pair of jeans
Coming apart at the seams
You've untangled all my tangled strings
You got me all figured out
Suddenly, somehow
Like a mystery, I'm unraveling
I never knew how good it'd feel
To be unraveling
Like a faded old pair of jeans
Coming apart at the seams
You've untangled all my tangled strings
You got me all figured out
Suddenly, somehow
Like a mystery, like a mystery
I'm unraveling, I'm unraveling
I'm unraveling, I'm unraveling
