

Aaron Shust, Breathe In Me

Mercy, in You're tender mercy
Look on me, look on me
Frailty, even in my frailty
Welcome me, welcome me
Father this my invocation
That You would come and meet me once again
Breathe in me
Breath of God
Mend in me, this wounded heart
That I may know You've made You're peace with me
Breathe in me
Burden, take away this burden
Set me free, set me free
Calling, I heard You calling
Out for me, You shout for me
Father this my invocation
That You would come and meet me once again
And I know that You will hear my pleading
And You will find me ever once again
Breathe in me
Breath of God
Mend in me, this wounded heart
That I may know You've made You're peace with me
Breathe in me
Empty, empty
Fill me, Father fill me
Empty, I am empty
Won't You fill me once again
Breathe in me
Breath of God
Mend in me, this wounded heart
That I may know You've made You're peace with me
That I may know You've made You're peace with me
That I may know You've made You're peace with me
Breathe in me
Grateful, I'm forever grateful
