

Abby Travis, Chase Me

Chase me
I'll follow you for all eternity
Mate me
My love for you is so extremely deep
Chase me
I'll follow you for all eternity
Mate me
My love for you is so extremely deep

You were the son
Of the 7th wonderfall
Autumn rain
Please to maul
Don't refrain

Chase me
I'll follow you for all eternity
Mate me
My love for you is so extremely deep

You were the son
Of the 7th wonderfall
Hardly soft
Sounds of trains

And now when I think I know
The meaning of your mistletoe
The smells of love - they fade for fools
Who drown in snow and freeze their jewels

Now and when I thought I knew
I'd always be inside of you
The light reflecting in your arms
As they caress your absent charms

Chase me
I'll follow you for all eternity
Mate me
My love for you is so extremely deep
