

Abe Vigoda, Bear Face

Big hell burns in brothers ear,
It burns for years and years,
Big hell burns in brothers ear,
He cries so many tears.

When I found you,
Sky had opened up,
You will bare the face of me,
You will bare the face of me,
When I found you,
You had given up,
You will bare the face of me,
You will bare the face of me.
