

Abominant, The Way After

Show me the way after
Feel the pain before my eyes
Pull the veil before my face
Feel my pain from inside
Will the flowers cry at my grave
Passing pictures fly by my mind
My last kiss life aside
Last dream again then I die

Wrap me in your arms of silence
Drape me in your dark cloak
Set aside a candle by my name
Wither flowers forever more
I face the shadows of all my fear
I grief in despair when I see it all
Night above the light and so below
I stumble forward for the fall

As darkness closed my eyes
I will find the way after

Behold my eyes of pain
Tears pour fall soft like rain
Life has now turn gray
Look to death now I'm not afraid
