

Aborym, Faustian Spirit Of The Earth

Gather your modalistic interchange ability, it would demand no reliability Holism; partly modified, partly unified Seems like you are subtle to the last

Faith and honour, portrayed like a bench by which slaughter is proceeded Insurrectional by wrench, no more prosperity for you, it took all you ever had

Return my Faustian Spirit of the Earth
Grace completes nature, yet abolishes it It shows how you're constantly being on alert Ambiguity; like a vernacular pendulum, back and forth

Redemption; you should never judge me and my children, omissioned by your failures only Attempting to touch your erroneous ideology
For all what I am worth; return my Faustian Spirit of the Earth
