

Aborym, I Reject

I reject God
I deny god
I reject your world
I reject your false laws
I reject your son
I reject its pathetic life
I reject your stupid humanity
I travel over again by now, alone
the covered roads
with my brothers
in the eternal battle
the eternal struggle against christianity in the eternal strife against christianity care behind
tried to the yield
the resistance aint futile
meaningless
aint worthless
