

Abra Moore, Prayer For An Angel

Don't tie the string so tight

She tried

she'll never slip away from you

A broken wing don't fly

A kiss, a kiss to say goodbye

To a world you used to know

I watch you chase her down

Away from you

But, can you hear her cry
Hope, hope is all you've got

You've forgotten how to find your way

Over you

Don't tie the string so tight

she'll never slip away from you

She tried

A broken wing don't fly.
