

Abscondo, Tattoo Angel

I must of followed you to that cafe
Stood in line and when you raised your arm to pay
Above your skirt, beneath your shirt, in light of day
Your tattoo angel's gotta come take me away

Do you still search your heart for passions?
Do you still throw your cares aside and sing?

The drugs you use are numbing you
So don't ask how you feel or what you need but who
I know you hurt, but still you flirt, that's how I knew
Your tattoo angel gonna fly just like she flew

And we will search these hearts for passions
And we will throw these cares aside and sing

I have nothing to do, I just wanna be
So carefree, we got wings

Let's abscond away for just a night or two
To play the music, have a glass, and sing off-tune
Lift your shirt, take off your skirt, and in the nude
Tattoo angel in a sky so dark and new

And we will search these hearts for passions
And we will throw these cares aside and sing

I have nothing to do, I just wanna be
So carefree, we got wings
