Abscondo, Tattoo Angel

I must of followed you to that cafe Stood in line and when you raised your arm to pay Above your skirt, beneath your shirt, in light of day Your tattoo angel's gotta come take me away

Do you still search your heart for passions? Do you still throw your cares aside and sing?

The drugs you use are numbing you So don't ask how you feel or what you need but who I know you hurt, but still you flirt, that's how I knew Your tattoo angel gonna fly just like she flew

And we will search these hearts for passions And we will throw these cares aside and sing

I have nothing to do, I just wanna be So carefree, we got wings

Let's abscond away for just a night or two To play the music, have a glass, and sing off-tune Lift your shirt, take off your skirt, and in the nude Tattoo angel in a sky so dark and new

And we will search these hearts for passions And we will throw these cares aside and sing

I have nothing to do, I just wanna be So carefree, we got wings
