

Absent Element, Weaker Side

Easy, too easy
To give in to the words that you say
Stupid, how stupid
I must have been
Every time, every time
I look into those eyes, I see lies
So close them now, close them now
The truth will rise

Where did I go wrong?

Need time to clear my head
Time to remember the one who keeps me here
'Cause everytime I hold them up
They end up dragging me down
The weaker side of me

Cover me, you cover me
With what I want, it aint what I need
Take it off, take it off
It's too hard to breathe
Devil eyes shine into mine
And now ya know I'm going blind
Go away, so go away
You're killing me

Where did I go wrong?

Need time to clear my head
Time to remember the one who keeps me here
'Cause everytime I hold them up
They end up dragging me down
The weaker side of me
The weaker side of me
The weaker side of me
Where did I go wrong?
