Absynthe Minded, Let?s Go

Tonight im losing debts You gotta stay in line I gotta write it all down

You know nobody listens To the words that you say This aint no fucking poetry This is what i gotta say

You gotta think Speak up But you just sit And use it up Make up your own mind Speed it up Do it for the lady Do it for luck For luck...

Im tired of the same old crowd Ive seen it happen everytime So move your ass and dont play dead

Im feeling coltrane why is this Everybody remenisce Remote from all the teenage scam But i am?

You gotta think Speak up But you just sit And use it up Make up your own mind Speed it up Do it for the lady Do it for luck For luck...
