

Accidental Superhero, 14 Miles

fourteen miles 'til i break you down time to realize i can make you frown my soul is free so step up on it to see past the faded sign

can't stop the tide, it flows (can't stop the pain inside,
can't stop to make it hide, can't stop to open wide, never mind)

up to now it's been irrelevant brought back to life through your dreamt up event with your sad eyes, you sent me on my way dreamt as you lied that it's ok

can't stop to make it hide,

time to realize i can make you frown

can't stop to make it hide,
