

Accidental Superhero, Hurt Me Badly

i entertain all the pain saw the hope wash down the drain - it's nothing it's not the flame that burns insane i slipped up, messed up when you i blamed don't sign for sorrow, i'll keep the heart i borrowed from somebody else

hurt me badly
i don't feel it anymore
sell me cheaply
just like everyone before i don't remiss the things unfixed i sank to deep and left, unmixed it's not the song you used to sing it's simply unfelt trite you bring don't fight tomorrow it'll crush the heart that's hollow despite how we felt
