

Accidental Superhero, Minoleum

are you weary
do you no longer lay down winter comes slowly
to reach me through the down

save me
i cannot save myself
vaguely
i don't remember how

drop down my deary
to reach me where I fall you never did know me or care at, care at all

so i did a little dance
as you walked away
and you smiled at me
and you smiled through me
and you smiled, smiled
and innocently
looked away

save me
i cannot save myself
vaguely
i don't remember how

save me
i cannot save myself
vaguely
i don't remember how

save me
save me
