

Ace Troubleshooter, Arms Of Love

Night and Day I have called out Your Name
Trying to find my way back to Your heart
I've been searching in vain
Cuz all I need to do is to silently listen for You
To hear Your gentle voice calling me back to You
Between the gray and the blue

And now I'm standing on Your holy ground
Cuz at Your feet I have laid my whole life down

And now I'm in Your precious arms of love
Nothing can ever separate me from the Father above

It doesn't take much rain for my heart to get filled with pain
But Lord, You're watching over me
I see I've worried in vain cuz You've taken my shame away
