

Ace Troubleshooter, Tempest

Dont touch this
Just look and feel your way through
Cant tough this tempest just yet

The hopes and fears in the sirens sounding
Beating hearts, tears as the rain starts pounding

Comfort in stereo sirens warning
Still fighting, white lightning blinding, storming

Its not in me, but Ill recover it
Its not in me

Go run and hide as the storm comes in
Its never enough
Ill be alright and I wont let it in

Standing ground, standing with sirens waking
Firmly rooted, ever bending, never breaking

Its not in me, but Ill recover it
Its not in me

Go run and hide as the storm comes in
Its never enough
Ill be alright and I wont let it in
