

Acelsia, Empty

I woke up to see the night alone
Shadows cross the wall
I wish it could be you who are standing
There, this night alone.
It's hard sometimes,
Come with me
Into the night
We'll break free.
I feel like I'm breaking
Inside, Show me your way to the
Heart, I long for you kiss and your touch
Show me a way, I can't live alone.
Still dark as I walk through this room
Empty as myself
I wish I could see your face,
You're here to keep me safe

I woke to see it's not you.
The room is empty,
I forgot the reality
I looked into the endless night
A cold and windy time.
Can't stand the pain inside
So tonight I'll win this fight.
I woke to see it's not you.
The room is empty
I forgot the reality
I feel like I'm breaking
Inside, Show me your way to the
Heart, I long for you kiss and your touch
Show me a way, I can't live alone.
