

Aceyalone, Headaches & Woes (Remix)

[Chorus One]
Heads and Woes
Heads and Wo-oes

Headtrips, Headtrips
I think it is, I know it is

[Chorus Two]
i got a head full of headaches a heart that's full of woes i'm constantly singin' them downhome blues and not many people knows that leaves me with a twisted view of the whole wide world as i know it and i guess i got no choice but to be a poet

[Verse One]
now in my natural habitat i gravitate towards cribs and i elevate on having that and i'll never get caught by the frills from Yellowstone to Venezuela Nigeria to the hills there's somethin i learned that i gotta tell ya brother's like me got skills now i could been your doctor or your lawyer or come to your house and build self destruction won't destroy ya if you know how to use that shield men are murdered and that's their fate and to get it on tape is a thrill and people elsewhere tryin to escape just to come to America and chill helicopters scope the land see you makin' your ghetto plan hip-hop culture is African and I ain't never going back to the fields

[Verse Two]
now everyday i manifest and i generate and smoke cannabis and i penetrate and i innovate and i demonstrate from the west from Amsterdam to the Northern border Panama Spain to Atlanta Georgia somethin' i learned that i haven't told ya cause everybody's goin' through stress now i know you know it ain't who you know but tell me do you know yourself cause you can go just like any John Doe but i know you ain't thinkin' about death so if you're straight and you're narrow and the snake's in the barrel and the serpent is under the rainbow and you don't really got not angle and you're head over heels instead of the reals then you're bound to be tangled cause brothers are singin' and dancin' and rappin' and cappin' each other and tryin to survive but knowledge is a fact you ain't comin' back and you won't get out of life alive

[Chorus One]
[Chorus Two]
[Chorus One]

[Verse Three]

Now i got this diamond in my eye symbolizing the way that i'm rising exercising and shining like a pearl linin all the planets up and rhymin to the world there's a reason why i had to be an individual instead of running with a pack 'cause the lone wolf never get his hoof scoofed if he got his own back I got my own back

now..

if you ever had a migraine in your brain and the pain of a million people walking in the flame some stain in the streets of the veins of a body called city and the body's locked in the streets of vein ain't that a pity itty bitty game and the heart of the ghetto pumpin' through life through your organs even though i know you know my head is achin', i'm awakened, i ain't fakin' and the woes is takin' they tolls
and the ways of the world and the universe swirls
