

Acid Drinkers, (Voluntary) Kamikaze Club

Let the most stupid one speak nervously scratching his ass I'll have the chance to smell that ugly pompous stench let the dumb - ass make me laugh let him make my pressure rise Cheap emotions win swallow minds in a deep sleep I smoked a pack of cancer sticks because of an elite dick I will know who to look for when I wind up in detox
Kamikaze club, I can fire you up
Kamikaze club, I can fire you up My body is too weak my hair's growing back to front they're gonna transport me there I won't be normal anymore I will know who too look for
when I wind up in detox
