

Action, Man's Law

Your lord ain't my shepherd
I won't follow like no fool
Adherent to the policies of a dog eared book of rule
Reject the notion we are judged
On every action every choice
For it means we're but machines,
Stripped of freedom, stripped of voice

MAN'S LAW

REJECT MAN'S LAW

RESIST MAN'S LAW

Now they're in our bedrooms
Dictating what is love
They bring a message of oppression
And apartheid from above
Breeding war under the thinly
Veiled guise of liberty
God and state go hand in hand,
Well it fucking don't for me
So don't you think it's time we
Took the reigns of our own destiny
And encouraged the expiration of an Ancient ideology

If restrictions on your freedom's
Getting harder to digest,
Well don't you think it's time
The myth is laid to rest?
