

Acumen Nation, Spill Throat

the time for lenience has passed a call to all beneath will sound i radio for back-up mallets and they crawl up from the undertow a machevelian portrait crashes a meteor of steam collides we will be searching through your ashes to find exactly why you tried to doom us all to save yourself if i could reach salvation i'd take that path but i don't think i'd waste it on your kind of trash if i could leave this nation you'd never have a chance 'cause i'd bury all the races... i see the white blind faith corrupting the future of my tis of thee it's easier just not confronting but i'd rather die than let you lead now if i could reach salvation i'd take that path

but i don't think i'd waste it on your kind of trash
if i could heal this nation you'd never have a chance
'cause i'd bury all the races and fade to black
but i don't think i'd waste it on your kind of trash
and i don't think it's racist to watch you crash and burn!

all the kings horsemen are dead and i'm left to clean up the mess realizing your shame i choose to revel in it fucking stupid game but i love to watch you lose it leaders changed beyond the color forced to face a weaker flex one that swallowed shit forever has now come raging back... back... back!

but i don't think i'd waste it on your kind of trash
if i could heal this nation you'd never have a chance
but i don't think i'd waste it on your kind of trash
and i don't think it's racist to watch you crash and burn!
watch you crash and burn... watch you crash and
watch you crash and burn...
