

Acumen Nation, Stone Farm

eenie, meenie, minus one a life deleted and a lifetime run eenie, meenie, minus two behavior i banish, but a creed to you to heroes i suffer recreating their torture blasphemy still to those who ignore it grinning like gringos like you grinning on your knees at the special pleasure that evil brings you live your life as all consuming economic slaves you live your life under the shadow of a sunny grave right now i am murdered every day right here i am facing extinction right and left is just a matter for the pawns you splatter right you become only when you witness the truth it matters nothing if jesus has found you and liked you, and helped you, then fucked you it matters nothing if you're pleasing a master who loves you and trusts you, but lusts your cadaver!

you live your life under the shadow of a sunny grave
