

Adagio, From My Sleep To Someone...

[Lyrics/Forte - Music/Forte]

[Verse]

Sometimes Morpheus's waiting
For my dreams to make me realize
How alone I can feel, in my suffers
How fragile I am

Who's controlling myself
My tears are falling
I'll never be the same
Open my window to real world
And let me go...

[Chorus]

And by the dawn I'll know
If I'll rest in my sorrow
To breathe to kiss, I'll need
To live my life forever
I am you are me
I am my own enemy
I'm frightened by my will
Can't you hear my appeal?

[Verse II]

Today's a new season
Do I have lost, all of my reason?
The blackened sky's awaits
The judgement of my lifeless fate

My eyes slowly opening
And I just feel like nothing has changed
I'll have to accept truth
I am condemned to cry

[Chorus]

And by the dawn I know
I will rest in my sorrow
To burn, to shout, I will
Not live this life forever
I am you are me
I am my own enemy
But for no long I'm sure
By myself I will cure
