Adagio, From My Sleep To Someone...

[Lyrics/Forte - Music/Forte]

[Verse] Sometimes Morpheus's waiting For my dreams to make me realize How alone I can feel, in my suffers How fragile I am

Who's controlling myself My tears are falling I'll never be the same Open my window to real world And let me go...

[Chorus]
And by the dawn I'll know
If I'll rest in my sorrow
To breathe to kiss, I'll need
To live my life forever
I am you are me
I am my own enemy
I'm frightened by my will
Can't you hear my appeal?

[Verse II]
Today's a new season
Do I have lost, all of my reason?
The blackened sky's awaits
The judgement of my lifeless fate

My eyes slowly opening
And I just feel like nothing has changed
I 'll have to accept truth
I am condemned to cry

[Chorus]
And by the dawn I know I will rest in my sorrow
To burn, to shout, I will
Not live this life forever
I am you are me
I am my own enemy
But for no long I'm sure
By myself I will cure
