

Adam Brand, Kinda Like It

Don't know what it is but I kinda like it
Maybe it's love
Maybe it's not
Don't know what it is but I kinda like it
Kinda like it a lot

She slid across the front seat
Unlocked the door for me
She was waiting in the car
I couldn't wait to get in
First night going so right
Put her pretty little hand in mine
All I knew it felt so good
What I was feeling right then

Drove down to golf links road
Pulled out on the 18th hole
Slow danced on the green grass
Stole a little kiss
Closed her eyes and held me tight
Felt the wheels spinning in my mind
When I kissed her again she said, I could get used to this

Little more than I want to Little more than I should Little more than I ought to
But damn it feels so good
Oh damn you feel so good
