

Adam Brand, When I Get My Wheels

When he turned 18
there was only one thing
That he'd think about all the time
With a scoop on the hood and a thundering roar,
When you power shift overdrive
Up on the hill
with a head full of dreams,
"That'll be me one day"
When the chequered flag would bring 'em all home,
This is what the kid would say

Now he's 25 got his own car,
No. 1 painted on the side
He may be young and he may be small,
But you ought to see him drive
Tearing it up through Conrod straight, Tyres chirpin' every gear,
If you listen close to what the kid's got to say,
This is what you're gonna hear

Now I've got my wheels watch me drive right by, You can eat my dust and try to keep up Man I'd like to see you try, I'll have my pedal to the metal my claw to the floor And I'm always out sight, Now I got my wheels
And I won't even wave goodbye
(And this is me waving goodbye)
