

Adam Brand, You're A Revhead

If you've ever dropped the clutch, you're a rev head
If you've ever smoked 'em up, you're a rev head
If your tyres are wide and your t-shirt's black
Your very first date was at the speedway track
It's time to face the fact you're a rev head

If you love Peter Brock you're a rev head
If you've ever chucked a lap round the block, you're a rev head
If you've got a spoiler and a set of mags
Lost a few points and won a few drags
Well you ain't one of the dags, you're a rev head GTS or XR8
XU1 or Chevrolet
Music up Hammer down
The words all over town
You're a rev head

If your man talks nothin' but cars, he's a rev head
And for Christmas he wants spare parts, he's a rev head
So you want him to sweep you off your toes A bubble bath and a long stem rose But he buys you a radiator hose, he's a rev head

GTS or XR8 XU1 or Chevrolet
Music's up Hammer down The words all over town
You can settle down with kids and a wife
But when a Chevy pulls up by you at the lights
Your foot goes down and your knuckles go white
You're an R-E-V H-E-A-D Rev 'em up boys
