

ADAM, Don't Erase My Name

I've been watching you for centuries
I gave you choice on destiny
I've cried in vain tears of pain
You are wasting my gifts
With insolence
I am bleeding love
You turn to hate

Don't erase my name
Don't erase my name
My name

You have no eyes to see
All the incredible things inside your dreams
You have just eyes to see
Only your horror and agony

Don't erase my name
Don't erase my name
My name
