

Adam Green, Gemstones

Gemstones cracking, 'cuz we're just too strong
Drum-sized yearning 'cuz the pressures gone
Supervised love, crucified stuvs
Simmering red in the sex farm clubs
There's an exit to this desert dangling freely from the shingles in the snow
She's a show off, Xanax Zoloft
Blank faced footprints of the zebras in the glen

Cavemen humping in the sterling space pod
Drumstick pumpkin in the Starbucks courtyard
Gigolos dance, stepping on toes
Benedryl nights in the OK holes

There's an exit to this desert dangling freely from the shingles in the snow
She's a show off, Xanax Zoloft
Blank faced footprints of the zebras in the glen

Lets break into the labrynth of lies
Let's dive off the end of his eyes
Hollywood hills, peppermint bills
I can still taste the grime that you stuffed in my gills

Oh Johnny, can't you set a place for Holly?
She's a wild one, she'll be staying for a spell
Till they find her, and they drag her down to Barcelona! Down to Barcelona
I'm a very funny boy but I know what I just said cha cha cha?
Dunking donuts, give me dunking donuts
She's a very funny girl but I love that crazy bitch ALLRIGHT!
