

Adam Gregory, Down The Road

i see your tears
i hear your words girl, i feel how much this hurts i know you can't, see it now, but i promise you, somehow its gonna be beautiful
its gonna be easy
its gonna be magic
its gonna be healing
there's a place you're meant to be,
but its somewhere
down the road from me
i ask god, &quot;what do i do?&quot; &quot;Whats the best way i can love you?&quot;
he said, &quot;son, you gotta set her free, cuz i have a way,
that she has just gotta see.&quot;

there is a place you're meant to be
it might be a thousand tears away but baby i believe that there comes a day
its gonna be beautiful
but its somewhere down the road from me
