Wastin' Time
Could have been a winner,
Should have taken me.
It was so damn cold I shoulda held ya
'Cause you were shakin' me.

Well, I almost had a question, When she led me home, I spent too much time for one night Bein' alone.

She said you're wastin' time, You're takin' a chance on me. You're wastin' time, You're takin' a chance on me.

Should have got the rambler, Back seat movie for two. I spent too much time for one night Bein' alone with you.

Should have seen her daddy 'Case he said she had to go. I spent too much time for one night Bein' all alone.

She said you're wastin' time, You're takin' a chance on me. You're wastin' time, You're takin' a chance on me.
