

Adelitas Way, Hate Love

When i fall asleep, you got a feel that ill never forget.
And now im more attracted, i know.
Everybody's coming, but the makeup sex as good as it gets.
And i just want to say to you,
Everytime that i hate you, i love you.
You're more than i can take; im getting over you.
It doesnt matter what you say, i cant let you go.
And i just want to get to know,
Everytime that i hate you, i love you.
You're the bottle of pain, but i loved you.
It doesnt matter what you say,
I can see why its hard,
You love to hate me too.
Every time i fall, i feel like breaking up but i know i cant.
And no one ever gets me like you.
I learned a lesson, its a losing battle war i cant win.
And now i got to say to you,
Everytime that i hate you, i love you.
You're more than i can take; im getting over you.
It doesnt matter what you say, i cant let you go.
And i just want to get to know,

Everytime that i hate you, i love you.
You're the bottle of pain, but i loved you.
It doesnt matter what you say,
I can see why its hard,
You love to hate me too.
You love to hate me too.
You love to hate me too.
And if we make it through,
i just want to say to you,
Every time i hate you, i love you.
You're more than i can take; im getting over you.
And i just want to get to know,
Every time that i hate you i love you,
you're the bottle of pain, but i loved you.
It doesnt matter what you say,
And i can see why its hard,
You love to hate me too.
You love to hate me too.
And if we make it through,
I just want to get to know.
