

Adelphi, Wake Up

It's not like me
To indent me from you
But apparently I do it way too often
It's not like you
To shut up and ignore every word said to you
How can you possibly see
You're digging yourself deeper all the time
Or is this what you've wanted all along?
Have it your way [x2]
So wake up
It's time that it's the end of us
So wake up
Am I making myself clear to you
Hope I'm making myself clear to you
It's not like me to voice my opinion
It's only because someone never stop giving theirs
It's not like me to not do anything about it
Nothing sign, no nothing sign
How can you possibly see
You're digging yourself deeper all the time
Or is this what you've wanted all along?
Have it your way [x2]
So wake up
It's time that it's the end of us
So wake up
Am I making myself clear to you
Hope I'm making myself clear to you
So wake up
It's time that it's the end of us
So wake up
Am I making myself clear
So wake up
Now it is the end of us
So wake up
Am I making myself clear to you
Hope I'm making myself clear
