

Adema, Human Nature

Some people stop and stare
Some people just don't care
Some people speak their minds
And some lose track of time
Some people need their fix
Some play their dirty tricks
Some just don't give a fuck
Some people make me sick

Human Nature

Your insecurities have no effect on me
Or the life I live
If what they say is true
You can feel it too
Cause there's a real thin line between you and I

Some care what's in my head
Some wish that they were dead
Some people pick and choose
Some will always lose
Some feel it in their bones
Some protect their zones
Some people play by rules
Some can't keep their cool

No!

Your insecurities have no effect on me
Or the life I live
If what they say is true
You can feel it too
Cause there's a real thin line between you and I
