

Adema, Shattered

Do you wake up and wonder where you're really going?
Reach the age in your life you wanted to achieve you goals
No

Confusion, it lingers, making me feel sick to my stomach
Because who knows what will happen next?

I've shattered into pieces in this world

::REPEAT::

This world, your world, my world

Confusion, it lingers

A fear of loathing that I regret

Because who knows what will happen next?

I've shattered into pieces in this world

::REPEAT::

This world, your world, my world

I've shattered into pieces in this world

This world, your world, my world

What do you want in life?

Do you have plans for the future?

I wonder: does anything matter?

It's not all the same old fate and it's all wrong

Hold onto your goal or you'll have nothing

You'll have

Nothing

::REPEAT::

Why?

Have I shattered into pieces in this world?

I've shattered into pieces in this world

This world, your world, my world

I've shattered into pieces in this world

::REPEAT::

This world, your world, my world

I've shattered into pieces in this world

This world, your world, my world
