

Adema, The Way You Like It

I'll get inside you
I'll get inside you

Don't live with shame
'Cause feelings change
One thing remains
The reason why you're gonna wanna take me home tonight
It's all the same
Up in this game
The people change
But money claims
Everyone from everything
I can't believe that you would think that shit of me
I was amazed at the torment that you put me through
If you could see
Right through the greed
And all your needs
You'd realize that you were just about as bad as me

Sometimes I only remember
The days when I was young
Nowadays no one remembers when they were young and stupid
The way you like it
Come on baby
Help me, someone to confide in
I'll get inside you
Now you're begging me to stay

My life has changed
But fuck the fame
I'll stay the same
You can't complain when you can pay the bills and do your thing
Appreciate
Don't play a hate
Congratulate
I miss the pain and the torment that you put me through
So what's to fear when everything is crystal clear
You realize that you should do the things you wanna do
Don't give into
What people say
Don't be ashamed
To separate the feelings on your mind you can't sedate

Sometimes I only remember
The days when I was young
Nowadays no one remembers when they were young and stupid
The way you like it
Come on baby
Help me, someone to confide in
I'll get inside you
Now you're begging me to stay
I'll get inside you

Now you're begging me to stay
I'll get inside you

You would always say I'd never be shit
They would always say I'd never be shit
But look at me now, look at me now!

I'll get inside you
I'll get inside you

The way you like it!

Sometimes I only remember
The days when I was young
Nowadays no one remembers when they were young and stupid
Come on baby
Help me, someone to confide in
I'll get inside you
Now you're begging me to stay

I'll get inside you

Sometimes I only remember
The days when I was young
Nowadays no one remembers when they were young and stupid
The way you like it
Come on baby
Help me, someone to confide in
I'll get inside you

I'll get inside you
Now you're begging me to stay
I'll get inside you

The way you like it
